

Volume One

- I. Basic Terms
- II. Basic Terms Continued
- III. Misinterpretation and Pseudoagreement
- IV. Definitoid Statements
- V. Elementary Analysis 209
- VI. Occurrence Analysis
- VII. Introduction of a Group of Concepts or Tests of Synonymity
- VIII. Synonymity Questionnaires in Use

Volume Two

- I. Pyrrho's Scepticism According to Sextus Empiricus
- II. The Psychological Possibility of Scepticism
- III. Scepticism and Positive Mental Health
- IV. Conceptual Complementarity of Evidence and Truth Requirements
- V. Dialectics of Modern Epistemological Scepticism

Volume Three

- I. Descriptions of Maximally Comprehensive Perspectives
- II. Comparison of Different Total Views
- III. Metaphysics as Exposure of Presuppositions
- IV. Can There Be, Ultimately, Only One Valid Total System?
- V. Cultures Construed as All-Embracing Systems
- VI. Some Conclusions

Volume Four

- I. The Impact of the New Historiography of Science
- II. Experimental Setup, Rank Dimensions, and Pluralism
- III. Theory and Theoretical Idea
- IV. The Unimpressiveness of Impossibilities
- V. The New Historiography Applied to Itself: General Possibilism

Volume Five

- I. Gandhi's Experiments
- II. The Metaphysics of Satyagraha
- III. Norms and Hypotheses of Gandhian Ethics and Strategy of Group Struggle
- IV. Nonviolence and the "New Violence"

Volume Six

- I. The Fundamental Dual Distinction: "In Itself" and "In Something Else"
- II. Existence and Freedom
- III. Causation, Cognition, and Action
- IV. Grading Basic Distinctions
- V. The Road to Freedom Through Active Emotion

- VI. Joy
- VII. Good and Bad and Usefulness
- VIII. Virtue and Reason

Volume Seven

- I. Interpretation
- II. Precization and Definition
- III. Analytic and Synthetic Sentences
- IV. Agreement and Disagreement
- V. Surveys of Arguments for and Against a Standpoint
- VI. Effective Discussion

Volume Eight

- I. Empirical Semantics and 'Truth'
- II. Zeteticism
- III. Empiricism, Possibilism, and Pluralism
- IV. Metaphysics, Morals, and Gestalt Ontology

Volume Nine

- I. Democracy, Ideology, and Rationality
- II. Philosophy of Science
- III. The Philosophy of Peace and Gandhian Ethics and Communication
- IV. Spinoza
- V. Philosophical Development, Environment, and Education

Volume Ten

- I. The Long-Range Deep Ecology Movement
- II. Values, Lifestyle, and Sustainability
- III. Deep Ecology and Politics
- IV. Deep Ecology Practices: Integrating Cultural and Biological Diversity
- V. The Significance of Place: At Home in the Mountains
- VI. Spinoza and Gandhi as Inspiration for Deep Ecology
- VII. Understanding Naess's Unique Approach to Deep Ecology
- VIII. Theoretical Dimensions of Deep Ecology and Ecosophy T
- IX. Deep Ecology and the Future

<http://www.springer.com/978-1-4020-3727-6>

The Selected Works of Arne Naess

Volumes 1-10

Naess, A.

2005, 3684p. In 10 volumes, not available separately.,

Hardcover

ISBN: 978-1-4020-3727-6